Below: Laura Haug and Danielle Coen seem happy to be in school.

We, the class of 1995, believe that our trip through Wachusett has proven quite memorable. The road to graduation has not only been long, strange, and exhausting, but it has brought us together. We are not classmates, but a family. Detours and breakdowns have been numerous, but we have finally reached our destination. Although our trek through grade, middle, and high school has finally come to an end, it has been merely a day trip compared to the ultimate trip through life. The lessons and values that we have acquired will ultimately lead us on to the road to success, and the memories we have gained from our everyday journeys will stand the test of time. What a long, strange trip it's been . . .

Far Bottom Right: Jeff Cranson is never short on straws.

Caught Up In The Moment

Below: Hey, how are you doing says Karl Warner.

Above: We are mint, we are the best, we rule! Says Tommy Marzilli, Jay Woodsmall and Eric Moller.

Homecoming 1995

Above: Blast off with the class of '95!

Top Right: Karina Levesque is the Wachusett Mountaineer.

Right: Wylie Culhane and Lynn Kennen are the (original?) flower children!

Our last high school homecoming was, by far, the best. The Wachusett spirit seemed to pour from every senior and as we leave this trip and go on to new ones, it's time to look back at Homecoming '95.

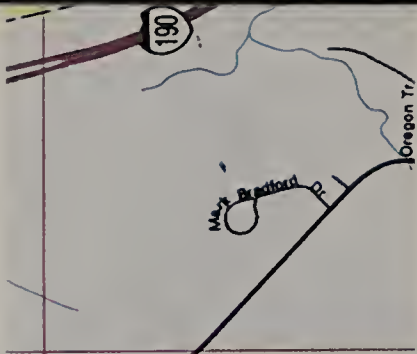

As a theme the Seniors picked the "Sixties." Bright colors adorned the walls of the Senior hallway, and most seniors! The pep rally ended Spirit Week with a bang. Seniors Joyce Wagner and Candy Fisher (Top Right) were there to demonstrate their spirit.

Concluding Friday's ceremonies was the bonfire (Bottom, Lower Left) at which friends and families gathered to celebrate the Wachusett spirit. The parade took on a peace march type atmosphere as shown by Felix T., Kara Whitney and Heather Gardiner (Bottom, Right). But it also celebrated the accomplishments of the '60's, such as man's first walk on the moon as portrayed by senior astronaut, Julie George (Left). Cars were also in abundance on the parade route, one fine example was Elisha Lindquist's groovin' car (Top Left). All this ceremony was topped by the afternoon's football game, followed by the Homecoming Dance in the cafeteria later in the evening.

NGE TRIP IT'S BEEN

Beyond My Thick Brown Hair

You can't see my face I'm looking at the big curls at the bottom of my hair.
I know you're there. I hear you swear.
no one else sitting beside me.
I hide my eyes when they are true.
I feel them sadden behind this fluffy brown hair. I know you can see me.
I wonder if you're aware.
I pushed it back once or twice,
And build a wall around.
And here I am sitting beside you.
I wish your eyes would burn through the surface. I wish that you would care.
But you still seem so unaware.
My every motion is fine.
Your every move is grand.
Every once in a while I stop and think you stare. I tuck my thick hair behind my ear.
I slowly raise my eyes upon you,
half a smile, Half a glare.
I don't think you know the consequences.
I'm not sure you even care.
All I know is that I want you to see me
past my sheet of hair.
You stop to look for a moment
And then you just dismiss.
I'm not sure why exactly,
You just seemed to miss . . .
while I'm still thinking about it,
I looked over boldly.
And maybe I'll just pretend,
That you and I are friends.
A sad loss to see
When you can't see me,
or beyond
my thick brown hair.

Seniors

On a road of their own . . .

Some of the exceptional seniors at Wachusett

Producers — sounds like Hollywood. Well, guess again. Right here in Holden are David Toscano and Shawn Scott, two producers. Dave got his start working at the W.A.G. (Worcester Arts Group); through this, he met countless numbers of new artists, including Juliana Hatfield. Networking through these people, Dave and Scott produce local bands and set up concerts with the more well-known bands. The Ramones, Sam Black Church, and Fugazi are just some of the artists they have worked with. Being a producer entails making mailing lists, paying for posters, renting out concert halls, setting up the stage, and paying the bands. Dave does this all over the phone, with the help of "a very well organized notebook." Besides playing the bass guitar and skateboarding, Dave also publishes his own fanzine entitled "Adhesion." He plans on attending Framingham State College next fall, and aspires to receive a master's degree in Music Production.

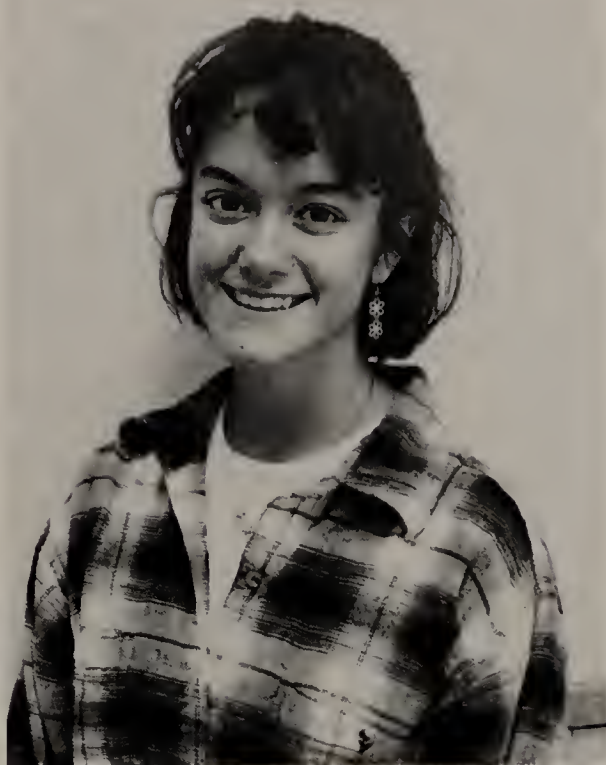

Sarah Driscoll's beautiful voice will long be remembered at Wachusett. As a member of Singers, she was selected to sing at Central District, All-State, and The New England Music Festival. Sarah has also performed in "Amal and the Night Visitors" at Clark University, and "Elijah" at Mechanics Hall, both in 1994. Commitment, responsibility, and self-worth are standards that have made Sarah one of Wachusett's outstanding seniors, who is truly destined to become a star.

The Grumpy Egg has been the hottest band to hit the Wachusett scene since Mocha Java, a couple of years ago. This band, comprised of all seniors, write their own original songs that "put the ph in funk." The members of the band include Bill Connor — drums, Jay Dibiasio — lead guitar, John Dorman — lead singer, Scott Keefe — bass, Tom Reid — back-up singer, and Erik Schienfeldt — rhythm guitar. The original band dates back five years ago, but this band has been rambling on for the past three years. Their demo tape, entitled "Grumpy Side Up," has been a great success here at Wachusett, mixing blues-type music with funk rock. Having played several gigs in Worcester, Grumpy Egg is certainly on the rise and has surely proved to be a talented group of seniors.

Ann-Elise Johnson has proven to be an important individual at Wachusett. At the beginning of the year Ann-Elise got together with her friends and formed WHY, Wachusett's Homo/Heterosexual Youth. She started this club in order to create a tolerant atmosphere for Wachusett's lesbian, gay, and bisexual students. Along with Ms. Stubbe, their advisor, the club has published 12 newsletters. Ann-Elise has also participated in several conferences at the Boston Statehouse. She also participated in the first Gay/Straight Youth Pride March on May 20 in order to represent Wachusett's Gay/Straight Alliance. She volunteered at the Stonehill Nursing Home with NEADS (New England Assistance Dog Services) and with the Worcester Civil Liberties Union. For four years she went on bike touring trips; 3 with Wachusett to Texas, New Mexico, and Florida; and one to New York State. She has certainly proved to be an exceptional student of Wachusett.

Freshman year marked the beginning of Kerri Bullock's commitment to AIDS education. After meeting a man who had become HIV positive, she became close friends with him, and realized how close to home the virus could hit. Later on, she talked to Mrs. Salmonsens about starting an AIDS group here at Wachusett; the Student Aids Action Committee was a direct result. Kerri visited Washington, D.C. to view the AIDS quilt, as well. Not only does she volunteer weekly at AIDS Project Worcester, but she was also trained at Tufts University to be a speaker on AIDS education and prevention by the Boston AIDS Action Committee. Kerri's courageous efforts are truly monumental in educating the younger generations about the AIDS virus, and Wachusett is proud to have her as a member of the Class of 1995.

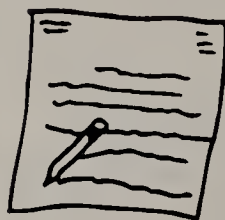

Journeying to Brazil to do construction and community service is not on the agenda of most kids for their summer vacation. Well, Melissa Kerr has spent two summers involved in this task and has loved every minute of it. Melissa is a missionary, and enjoys helping people. Involved in both the Open Book Club and the Wachusett Echo, her love for English is eternal and she plans to concentrate on it at Gordon College next fall. Melissa plans on continuing her missionary work for the rest of her life, and hopes to someday teach English as a missionary in a foreign country. Her efforts are truly inspirational, and she will stand as a model for many students to come.

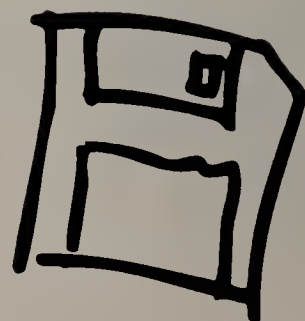

Both Yuisa Pérez and Angela Whitford have been vital components of Wachusett's student council, and have been active outside the Regional, as well. Yuisa was one of many Massachusetts students who took part in this year's Student Government Day, which was held by the Massachusetts Teachers' Association. This yearly event is an opportunity for high school juniors and seniors to venture to the State House and attend mock hearings on bills that have the possibility of being passed in the house or senate. Angela Whitford has been a member of student council every year she has been at Wachusett, and was elected Secretary of the Massachusetts Student Council Board. Through this, she has helped organize the State Conference for High Schools throughout the state, and represented Massachusetts during the National Conference. Both Angela and Yuisa have clearly gone beyond the call of duty for student council, and through their efforts, they have managed to put Wachusett on the map as one of the premier public high schools throughout the state.

Joe Kalinowski has truly been the technological leader of Wachusett. From computers, to video, to sets and lighting, he has always been there to help in some way. Not only has Joe helped produce "Wachusett Review" for some time, but he also helped with the video and even hosted this year. The many stage productions that have taken place could not have gotten off the ground without the lighting and set wizardry that only Joe can pull off. Besides these outstanding feats, he was also a driving force that propelled Wachusett onto the information superhighway by assisting in the setup of both the media center and the curriculum lab. Joe's brilliance and help has truly been a godsend to Wachusett, and he will continue to be appreciated at Worcester Polytechnic Institute next fall.

Being class valedictorian was not a goal of David Ratliffe, but he doesn't mind the honor. Dave says he only spends a couple of hours a night studying, and his favorite subject is U.S. History. In his free time, Dave runs 3 seasons of track mostly competing in the hurdles, high jump, and discus. He is unsure as to where he will be attending college next fall, either Princeton University or the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Planning to study biology and continue on to medical school, he is striving to become a medical researcher or doctor. Recently, several awards have been bestowed on David; the Bausch & Lomb Science Award, the Harvard Book Award, the Tandy Corporation Scholar Award, and the Telegram & Gazette Student Achiever Award. Congratulations to Dave, and much luck in the future.

Both Laura Haug and Amy Caputo have proven to be outstanding seniors this year, and in similar fields. Amy began gymnastics at the age of four, and continues to practice 20 hours a week. She recently placed second in the State Gymnastics Championships in the all-around category, and first place for the balance beam. Next year, Amy will be attending U Mass Amherst, where she will continue to compete in gymnastics. Laura's efforts date back to 1984, when she began practicing dance at the Art Center. After earning the title "best senior ballerina" in her school, she went on to the regional, and then state championships. After triumphing over her competition in the state meets, she then had the opportunity to travel to Las Vegas for the National Competition, where she received gold, silver, and bronze medals. This summer, Laura will be performing on the Majesty Cruise Lines to Bermuda, as well as attending the world-famous Goombay Dance Festival. Her fall plans include the study of dance and English at Hamilton College. We wish continued success for both Amy and Laura in both of their fields.

Both Matt Carlson and Todd Stanley began skiing at a very early age, and both at Wachusett Mountain. While Todd's specialty is ski ballet, Matt's is mogul skiing. Todd competed in the U.S. Nationals, where he placed 9th overall and won 1st place in the North American Grand Prix. Matt is a member of the Killington Mountain Ski Club, and has recently competed in the Junior Nationals. The two both have olympic aspirations; Todd hopes to compete in the 2002 Olympic Games, and Matt is striving to compete in the World Cup. It is an easy guess where college plans for the two are; Matt will be attending Lyndon State College in Vermont, and Todd will be enrolling at the University of Utah, where he will be able to take the winter off to compete. The class of 1995 is extremely proud of these two outstanding seniors, and hope that fame and glory is a close companion for both of them.

Ryan Parkinson began competitively swimming some 11 years ago. When asked how he got his start, he says that his older sister used to swim, so his mom threw him in to get him out of the way. Now, Ryan practices for about 20 hours a week in the Gardner town pool. Other hobbies of Ryan include waterskiing and snowboarding. Although he has no olympic aspirations, he was ranked 16th in the country at the U.S. Open in December of 1994. U Conn's swim team is anxiously awaiting Ryan for the fall of 1995, and there is no doubt that he will be their star swimmer.

STAR LIGHT, STAR BRIGHT

I LAY ON MY BACK ALL ALONE, ENTRANCED BY THE MYSTERIOUS EVENING SKY. THE CRASHING SURF ECHOES THROUGHOUT MY MIND AND BODY, AND THE OCEAN MIST SOOTHES MY TENDER SUNBURNT SKIN. AS I STAND UP, I NOTICE THAT THE IMPRESSION OF MY BODY IS LEFT IN THE SOFT, COOL SAND. I BEND DOWN AND STEAL A GIANT HANDFUL. THE HARDER I SQUEEZE IT, THE FASTER THE SILKY GRAINS SLIP THROUGH MY FINGERS. SO MUCH LIKE MY LIFE; THE HARDER I TRY TO HOLD ONTO SOMETHING, THE FASTER IT SEEMS TO DISAPPEAR.

I REMEMBER HOW ON SUMMER NIGHTS, VERY MUCH LIKE THIS ONE, MY FATHER WOULD OFTEN TAKE ME OUTSIDE AND SHOW ME THE STARS. I WAS ONLY 5 OR 6 AT THE TIME, BUT THESE ARE STILL SOME OF MY MOST VIVID MEMORIES. I'D SIT ON HIS LAP, AND HIS BIG ARMS AROUND ME WOULD SHIELD ME FROM THE COOL EVENING BREEZE. I DON'T REMEMBER HIM TELLING ME STORIES ABOUT THE CONSTELLATIONS, OR EVEN THEIR NAMES, BUT HE GAVE ME A STAR AND SAID IT WAS MINE, AND EVERY NIGHT BEFORE WE'D GO IN HE'D TELL ME TO WISH ON MY STAR.

I'M 17 NOW AND I FEEL LOST A LOT OF THE TIME. WHEN I LOOK DOWN AT THAT SAND SLIPPING THROUGH MY FINGERS, I WONDER IF IT'S NOT JUST SAND SLIPPING AWAY, BUT MY CHILDHOOD TOO. I WANT EVERYTHING TO STOP. I WANT TO STOP GROWING, FEELING, HIDING AND HURTING. I RUN TOWARD THE SHIMMERING WATER. MY TEARS LEAVE SALTY TRACKS ON MY FACE. THE COLD, FIERCE WAVES SLAP AGAINST MY BODY, AND AS I SUBMERGE, MY HEART SEEMS TO STOP FOR A SECOND. AS MY FACE BREAKS THE SURFACE, I GASP FOR BREATH AND MY EYES FIX ON THE STAR THAT MY FATHER HAD GIVEN TO ME YEARS AGO. I CLOSE MY EYES, SMILE, AND MAKE A WISH NEVER TO BE REVEALED.

Leadership

Wachusett Administrators Lead Us Through The High School "Trip"!

Dr. Thomas G. Pandiscio had a long trip as assistant principal but in the 1993-1994 school year, he took a strange turn and headed down the road as a first year principal of Wachusett. Mr. Timothy E. Wiblin started his trip the same year as the new assistant principal. Although Mr. David R. Tarkianen took a fork in the road to become our new dean of students, he still took time to navigate us through the day with updates on coming events and brightened our spirits with his "jokes." Mr. Bernard H. Tremblay, our assistant principal, journeyed with many Wachusett students to destinations of unexpected surprises.

The main office went through thick and thin while traveling with us down the long, winding quest to graduation. We thank them for dealing with all our strange situations, and for being an excellent secretarial staff.

During the last year of our long journey through high school we encountered many unknown faces who hitched a ride on the Wachusett bus to become part of the teaching staff. Each subject area added new teachers to their staffs, due either to new openings or to fill the shoes of last year's retiring teachers. Even though new teaching careers have started, many long-standing careers have continued their quest of educating students.

Along with the teaching staff, the guidance office helped us achieve our goal of starting a new journey towards college. They dealt with our little crises of preparing for college along with rescuing the underclassmen from being sidetracked.

Although our trip has finally come to an end, the Wachusett faculty will continue to journey down the long, winding path. We would like to thank them for all the help they have given us over the past four years. We appreciate what they have taught us, which will guide us as we travel down the road to success.

Hometown Guide To The Wachusett Faculty And Staff

Every day the faculty and staff of Wachusett Regional High School travel from two states and 34 cities and towns across Central New England, to spread the good news of education!

Forty-two people come from Holden, twenty-six from Worcester, Rutland and Jefferson have thirteen staff members leaving their houses bright and early daily. Eleven come from Princeton and seven from Barre. Shrewsbury and Paxton each contribute six members; with Leominster, Hubbardston and Sterling having five staff members leave their towns daily for the ride to Holden. Ashburnham sends four wonderful teachers to our school. Oakham and Auburn each bring three teachers to us. Lunenburg, East Brookfield, Whitinsville, New Braintree, Bolton, West Boylston, and Westminster each lose two great educators to the Wachusett family. Several locations are represented by one staffer each. One comes the farthest from Brookline, Massachusetts (outside of Boston), another comes from out of state, Jaffrey, New Hampshire to be precise. Other loners include travelers from Sturbridge, Webster, Spencer, Clinton, Lancaster, North Grafton, Littleton, Leicester, Westborough, Cherry Valley and Sutton.

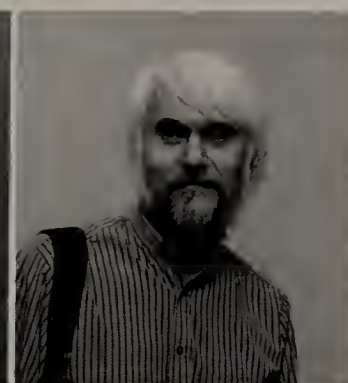

All we can say is not only is this a five-town regional for students, but a true regional for staff who make the daily trip on our behalf!

MISSING FACES

Throughout our fast paced trip in putting the yearbook together, we never crossed paths with the following teachers: Mr. David Beckwith (SC), Mrs. Barbara Carraher (SE), Mrs. Roberta Chase (MC)(DH), Mrs. Brenda Court (AE), Mrs. Anne Finklestein (LS), Mrs. Myra Gartland (SE), Mrs. Elizabeth McCallum (IS)(DH), Mr. Robert Morey (ART), Mrs. Catherine Rosenstock (IS), Mr. Evans Tsoules (GU), Mr. Peter Weis (SC), Mrs. Katherine Wieland (GU), and the day time custodial staff (listed to the left). We apologize for the omission of any faculty members who had wished to be photographed; but sometimes the best laid plans for a trip hit a road block!

ALLOW ME A MINUTE

ALLOW ME A MINUTE TO BRUSH MY HAIR
BEFORE I COME WITH YOU
INTO THE CAR WHERE TIME STANDS STILL AND THE
AIR HANGS HEAVY
AS WE DRIVE IN SILENCE.
ALLOW ME A MINUTE TO BREATHE A SIGH OF RELIEF
AND TO SMILE A HOPEFUL SMILE THAT AS WE SIT.
YOU MAY FIND ME THE WAY I WANT TO BE.
I FEEL YOUR WATCHFUL GAZE
AS I SLOWLY FALL ASLEEP ON YOUR SHOULDER, YOUR SHOULDER WHICH SO MANY TIMES BEFORE HAS HELD MY HEAD
AND MY HEART.
ALLOW ME A MINUTE TO SLEEP HERE,
OBLIVIOUS TO THE PAIN WHICH PLAGUES YOUR HEART
AND THE WORDS YOU NEED TO SAY TO MY CLOSED EARS.
I CAN FEEL NOTHING BUT THE BEAT OF MY HEART-BEAT,
IN SYNC WITH YOUR BRAIN POUNDING
WITH THE THOUGHT YOU HOLD PRISONER 'CAUSE
I ASKED YOU TO ALLOW ME A MINUTE.
UNAWARE THAT THAT MINUTE MIGHT BE TOO LONG,
UNAWARE OF YOUR CONFUSION THAT CAME
WHEN YOU SAW A SPEEDING CAR HEADING TOWARDS US.
AND NOW, NOTHING ELSE MATTERS,
MY MINUTE HAS GONE, AS HAS YOURS.

Long Sought Victory Over St. Johns Finally Accomplished!

Cross Country Overview: How about those runners this Fall, they really took to the roads and came back as winners. Both the girls and boys cross country teams had great seasons with many school and individual records being set. On the boys side, Ben Mollica posted a tenth place finish at States, and had the third fastest time of any Central Mass runner. Also, for the first time, Wachusett upset St. Johns, posting a dual meet win over the Pioneers. On the girls side, Kelly Hughes broke the school record, not once, but twice in the same week. Kelly and senior, Emily Audette paced the team to a third place District E finish, with Kelly finishing third and Emily, fifth. They were joined as League All-Stars by freshman, Ellen Hedlund, who finished sixth in the State Coaches Meet for freshmen from all over Massachusetts. Because of their finish in the District E competition, the Wachusett girls team competing in the State Meet, where they finished tenth. This road led the teams and their coaches, Brian Wallace and Larry Jaquith, to the close of a great season.

The Wachusett Regional High School Girl's Varsity Soccer team finished the 1994 season with a record of 11-5-3. The team consisted of ten seniors, four juniors, seven sophomores, and two freshmen. The tri-captains, Sarah Courtemanche, Jessica Benoit and Amy Warrington led this year's team to the Districts. Although being knocked out in the first district game, the team played with heart and spirit. Throughout the season, the team struggled with many illnesses and injuries, making each game more of a challenge. Missy Nordberg was the top scorer this season with seven goals and thirteen assists. Goalkeepers Sara Carver and Meghan Toomey had an excellent season, posting ten shut-outs. The girls, coached by Jeff Larson, had a great time this season finally making the dream of visiting the districts a reality.

Indoor Track '95

Running For The Record Books

It was an impressive year for the Mountaineers Boys Indoor Track Team. They had an undefeated dual meet record, and managed to set several school records while winning those meets. The team finished first in the Wallace Invitational, the League Relays, and the Mid-Wach League Meet. They placed second in the Districts which gave them the opportunity to compete in the State Class A Meet where they finished nineteenth. Coached by Brian Wallace and Richard "Skip" Knight; the team's proudest win was over arch-rival, St. John's. This was the first time in many years that a Wachusett squad was able to pull this off. With this upcoming crop of performers, it won't be the last! Individual performers shone on the boy's team, with the standout performer being senior, Ben Mollica, who competed in the mile run event. Ben was the District champion, he placed third in the State Class A meet, which earned him the right to enter the New Englands where he again placed third in the mile. Senior members of the track team include: Jeremy Boyce, Ian Butterfield, Brendon Fish, Gus Gillberg, Jeffrey Heighton, Brian Henry, William Holbrook, Michael Minehan, Ben Mollica, Greg St. Louis, David Ratliff and Paul Sullivan.

Corrine Cassidy — 4th in the 55 Meter Dash

They came, they ran, they broke some records! Along with their male counterparts, the 1995 Mountaineer Girls Track Team had a fabulous season. Coached by Brian Wallace and Ms. Jenifer West; the team was paced by seniors, Emily Audette, Amy Caputo, Alison Farley, Jen Meyer, and Julie Rasku. Great performances were turned in by juniors, Corrine Cassidy, Maria Magnin, Tara Paakonen, Katie Platt, Alison Roy and Beth Singley. The team was loaded with sophomore talent like Alison Burak, Julie Fallon, Karen Fox, Kristen Frank, Kelly Hughes, Nicole Koleshish, Julie LePain, Melissa Meyer, Meg O'Connor, Amy Slabich and Kelley Tiarks. Not to be forgotten are the future stars on the run — the freshmen: Betsey Ahearn, Colleen Brockman, Jessica Pierce, Becky Janick, Beth Merritt, Maureen Minehan, Lindsey O'Rourke, Heather Palmer, Erica Peterson and Mande Smith.

Speaking of Mande Smith, this freshmen, along with Emily Audette, Corrine Cassidy, and Kristen Frank stunned the rest of the field when they won the New England Championship for the 4 x 440 relay team. This definitely earns Wachusett the title of having the fastest girls around!

WHAT A LONG ORGANIZATIONS

STRANGE TRIP IT'S BEEN..

I HAVE SEEN YOUR PEER QUESTIONINGLY
AT OTHERS THIS WAY BEFORE.
I HAVE DREADED THE DAY THAT YOUR EMPTY STARE,
PROTRUDING FROM A PILLOW OF BLEAKNESS WHITE,
WOULD TURN SOLEMNLY TOWARDS ME.
FORGETTING MY NAME
AND ALL THE DAYS OF RAINBOWS WE SPENT TOGETHER.

I REACH OUT TO SHAKE YOU,
I WANT TO HURT YOU INTO REALIZATION—
I WANT TO AWAKEN YOU TO REMEMBRANCE.

GRANDPA, I SAY INSTEAD,
REMEMBER WHEN WE WENT FLOWER PICKING
IN YELLOW FIELDS OF BOBBING DAISY HEADS?
REMEMBER, I WORE MY PINK SUNDAY SCHOOL DRESS
TRIMMED WITH DELICATE WHITE LACE?
YOU LET ME WEAR IT WHEN MOM WOULDN'T.
REMEMBER HOW YOU ARGUED WITH HER?
"GIRLS ARE SUPPOSED TO BE BEAUTIFUL" AND
"A LITTLE DIRT NEVER HURT ANYBODY"
YOU PLEADED.
SO WE WADED THROUGH THOSE SUNSHINE FIELDS—
MY LITTLE FEET SKIPPING TO MATCH YOUR LONG STRIDES.

GRANDPA, I SAY,
REMEMBER WHEN I CROUCHED
AND WITH BLUE EYES ON INNOCENT WONDER
GAZED AT THE GRASS, ASKING
"HOW COME I CAN'T SEE IT GROW, GRANDPA?"
DO YOU REMEMBER YOUR REPLY?

YOUR WEARY VOICE, TIRED FROM STRUGGLING WITH YOUR DETERIORATING MIND,
SHATTERS MY PERFECT CRYSTAL LAKE OF CLEAR MEMORY.
GAZING AT THE UNFAMILIAR FIGURE OF A GROWN WOMAN
YOU ASK WITH CLOUDED EYES,
WHO ARE YOU?

MY HEART BREAKS AT YOUR EARNEST INQUIRY,
THROBBING IN PAIN.
I REACH OUT AND GRASP YOUR KNOTTED HAND.

GRANDPA, I REPLY,
I REMEMBER NOW WHAT YOU TOLD ME
AS I CROUCHED IN THE DAISIES THAT SUMMER AFTERNOON, GOLDEN PIGTAILS OF YOUTH STREAMING IN THE BREEZE.
"CHILD," YOU SAID WITH EYES OF WISDOM,
"WHEN THINGS GROW THEY CANNOT BE SEEN WITH THE EYES, ONLY FELT WITH THE HEART."

I RELEASE YOUR LIMP HAND AND TURN TO GO.
LOOKING BACK I NOTICE YOUR EYES ARE NO LONGER PIERCING—
THEY ARE STARING BEYOND ME,
SEARCHING FOR WHAT THEY CANNOT FIND ON BLANK, BLEAK WALLS.
MY GAZE RESTS UPON WITHERED DAISIES
BY YOUR BEDSIDE, GRAYING WITH AGE.

GRANDPA, I WHISPER THROUGH TEARS,
NOW I KNOW WHY MY HEART HURTS SO MUCH.

On January 27 and 28, 1995; the Music Department Sponsored Its 14th Annual Elizabethan Dinner Concert

Madrigal Dinner

The Music Department presented its annual Madrigal Dinner at St. Mary's Parish Hall in Jefferson. The Wachusett Singers presented scenes from Beauty and the Beast, along with several medieval melodies. Cast members included Bob Beck as King Victor and the Beast of the Firestone Cavern, Jen Kimball as Queen Belle of the Golden Sun, Brian Henry as the Honorable Spencer and the Keeper of the Talisman of Sanity, John Bartosiewicz as Galliant Gaston of the Mountainous Ego. Jessica Jusseaume portrayed Lady Gertrude of Presley Caverns, Matt Hammerberg and Sarah O'Conner were Prince Gregory and Princess Marjorie of Snob Manor, Sarah Driscoll was Princess Gladys of Peppermint Valley. Instrumentalists of the royal court performed on both evenings and guests of the court were served a seven-course dinner. Some changes were made from previous years, but both performances went well. The hall was decorated magnificently, and a roasted boar was a realistic prop. Mr. Thomas Nerbonne worked with the Singers and was the production manager of the Dinner. Ms. Miriam Jensen organized the instrumental groups and coordinated ticket sales. All present had a jolly time and thoroughly enjoyed their jaunt through time.

Fall Play

Cheaper By The Dozen Presented By Wachusett Regional

The play was presented December 2 and 3, 1994. It was directed by Ms. Mary LeMay, produced by Mrs. Melanie Donegan. The Business Manager was Mr. Michael Lambert. Set in a New Jersey home in the 1920's, "Cheaper By The Dozen" is the story of the trials and tribulations of a very large and unique family.

The Fortieth Annual Wachusett Regional Science Fair was held in the science department of the school on Monday evening, February 13. The many displays of the original research done by the students were viewed throughout the evening by fellow students, school committee members, friends and parents while the judges went about their work.

As usual, the projects ranged from culturing microorganisms to having robots reprogram computers. The creativity and ingenuity of Wachusett students continues to assure that they will be extremely successful in any career move they will make later on in life.

Showtime

Fiddler On The Roof

On the evenings of May 11, 12, and 13 of 1995; the Wachusett region was treated to the high school's version of the Broadway musical, Fiddler On The Roof. Under the direction of Ms. Mary LeMay, the cast performed with great zeal the story of Tevye and his dreams for his daughters. Ms. LeMay was assisted by the Musical Director, Mr. Stephen Laughlin and the Producer, Mrs. Melanie Donegan. Several other faculty members assisted the production as Business Manager (Mr. Michael Lambert), Stage Manager (Mrs. Shirley Blehar), and Costume Coordinator (Ms. Amy Hannah); as well as Properties, Make-up, Publicity, Programs, Set Design and Construction, tickets and ushers. On "Opening Night," the Freshmen class sponsored a dinner theater in the cafeteria.

Besides those students in the captions, other roles were played by Maura Matlak, Jessica Daley, Kimberly DiVincenzo, Meghan Brown, John Bartosiewicz, Matthew Holloway, Andrew Vickstrom, Christopher Trudeau, Jonathan Foss, Tommy Olson, Thomas Innis, Marisol Rivera, Benjamin Brown, Michael Oliver, A'ndrea Blake, Stephen Hsu, and Mariah Herbst.

Above: The crowd patiently awaits the next victims entering the jello pits.

Right: Evelyn Hafferty races for the gold; what form, what style?

Spring Fling '95

One of the more exciting stops on our trip through senior year was the Spring Fling extravaganza. Seniors, of course, ruled again!

Above: WWF trainees Matt Lane and Mike Hogan finally are able to perform for the crowd at Wachusett in the dreaded pits of jello.

Senior Prom 1995

In My Life . . .

Many memories were made at the 1995 Senior Prom, held at Mechanics Hall on May 20, 1995.

Left: Here we see a multitude of seniors shakin' their booties.

Below: Rob Barrow and Sara Geene dance the night away.

Above: It's boogie time for many of this year's prom-goers.

Right: This year's prom theme was "In My Life," by the Beatles, with the color scheme of red, black, and silver.

Right: Several seniors take a break from cuttin' up the rug to say "howdy."

Right: Mike Minahan is in good form as he takes a plunge.

Amy Marie Whitcomb

Amy, Congratulations.
We are very proud of
you. You've got it together and the future is yours for the taking. We wish you good luck but you won't need it, you'll make your own.

Love, Mom, Dad and

Angela,
Like gains of sand on
the beach, the times
you made others feel wanted. Like sun
gleams on a lake, the smiles you've brought to others' faces. Like stars in the sky, the
ways we love you.
Mom, Dad and Amanda

Kelley Ann

Our time here has ended, just like the setting of the hazy summer sun. However, everything is not over; it is just the end of the beginning. What lies ahead of us is a blurred image and nothing more, but will be a superior addition to what is already behind us. But who are we now? We are painters, mathematicians, gifted singers and talented skaters. Or quite possibly, we are guitarists, mechanics, or computer geniuses. Any of these things are possible, and one thing we all have in common is a curious, yearning mind that reaches out and thirsts for enlightenment. We need to feed these growing minds with knowledge, for we are the future of the world. Years will pass and we will soon become the elders of society, and the wisdom gained throughout our lives can be passed on. So, with the dawning of the new day, we will all become rejuvenated and renewed, anxious to start off on our quest to continue growing in knowledge. Through this, we will make our mark in society, leaving the world just a little bit better for the next generation.

Congratulations to the Class of 1995

Thanks From The Road

The staff of the "Mountaineer" would like to take time out of our "trip" to thank those people who assisted in some way:

Mr. Arnie Lohmann, our company representative from Jostens/Hunter Publishing.

Mr. Ken Parker of Photography By Kenneth Parker; as well as his staff of Elizabeth, Marie, and Tina, too!

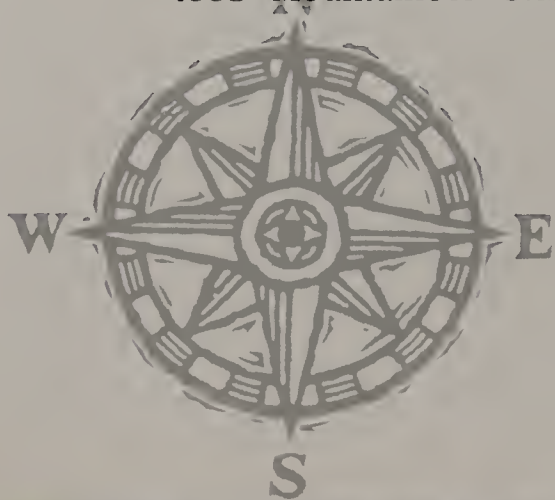

Mrs. Donna Laramie, our financial advisor.

Mr. Greg Smith and the "Machine Men" who helped load the soda machines, and assisted Mrs. Laramie.

All the administration, faculty and staff who helped in some way with the production of this book.

Thanks for the memories, we're outa here!

Mrs. Rosemary Laverdiere, Advisor
1995 "Mountaineer" Staff

Colophon

The "Mountaineer" is an annual publication by the Yearbook Staff at Wachusett Regional High School, 1401 Main Street, Holden, Massachusetts 01520. The towns served by the high school are Holden, Paxton, Princeton, Rutland and Sterling. The book was distributed to the class of 1995 at a class barbecue held in mid-August, 1995.

The book was printed in Winston-Salem, North Carolina at the Jostens/Hunter Publishing Division. The press run was 450 copies. The staff was assisted in the design of the cover, end sheets, division and title pages by Rick Brooks of the Creative Resources Department of Jostens, and by the company representative, Arnie Lohmann.

Our cover is a school-designed true-life lithograph. The base material cover is white (# 478) with the addition of numerous mix-to-match inks. The litho process cover has film lamination for protection. The front cover also has an iridescent foil stamp in indigo ice (# 31C) for the class year. The trim size is 8½ by 11, and is Smythe-sewn. It is wrapped around 120-point binder's board. The school follows the Majestic program.

The front and back end sheets are different. Both are from the Contempore paper line and are soapstone, printed in brown (# 469). The front end sheet contains the Table of Contents printed over a 60% screen of a map of the Wachusett region. The back end sheet is the 60% screen map.

The paper used throughout the book was 60 pound gloss, printed with standard black ink. Sixteen pages were printed using the standard four color process. Original artwork, submitted by students, was refined by Jostens/Hunter. Various type styles were chosen at the discretion of the section editor.

A current events supplement, "World Beat" (produced by Jostens/Hunter) has been sewn into the book between pages 208 and 209.

Candid photographs were taken by the advisor and students. Senior portraits were taken by Ken Parker and his associates at Photography By Kenneth Parker of Holden, the designated official yearbook photographer. Other professional photographers did some of the senior portraits. Athletics (both team and candid), clubs and organizations, faculty, underclassmen, and other major school events were photographed at no charge to the yearbook by Photography By Kenneth Parker. In addition, the studio provided black and white film and developing at no additional cost.

The approximate cost of printing the book is $27,500.00. This figure includes publishing costs, freight charges, shipment of materials to North Carolina, color candid photography expenses (purchase and developing), and other supplies. The per copy cost of the book is $30.00. Other monies are raised through an assessment to the Senior Class at the rate of $30.00 per student, a parent and patron/sponsor solicitation campaign, and the proceeds from the three soda machines in the gym corridor. The book contains no commercial advertising; and its 224 pages is representative of the entire student body.

Left: Ben Mollica will have no trouble on the road of life if he follows the sine and cosine curves of his faithful companion Miss USA!
